1. The Integrated Training Service (ITS) of the Division of Policy, Evaluation and Training (DPET), Department of Peacekeeping Operations (DPKO) and Department of Field Support (DFS), in cooperation with the Government of the Republic of Korea, will conduct a United Nations Child Protection for UN Police Training of Trainers course from 4 to 8 June 2018 at the Korean National Police University in Asan City, Republic of Korea. 2. The aim of the course is to strengthen the capacity of Member States to deliver UN-required Child Protection training for police personnel deploying to Peacekeeping Operations, especially in challenging environments where Child Protection is mandated by the Security Council. The programme will introduce the new training package of specialized training materials and enable participants to practice delivery of the training materials. 3. In view of the above, ITS would like to extend an invitation to nominate 2 police training officers to attend this course. Participants must be either engaged in delivering UN pre-deployment training for national police personnel, about to be allocated this responsibility or responsible for overseeing the delivery of such training. Participants must be fully fluent in English. Nominations of female participants are highly encouraged. 4. Participants will be assessed and those who pass will be awarded a certificate of proficiency. A number of participants will also be identified as potential members of future ITS-led Mobile Training Teams (MTT). Those who are identified for the roster may be requested, upon approval from their governments, to conduct other TOT courses in conjunction with our staff. 5. All costs for travel, accommodation and meals will be borne by ITS and the Republic of Korea. Your nominee must have valid medical insurance while attending the course in the Republic of Korea. First aid will be provided by the host country.
