providing the information. In case of correspondence emanating from me, only copy of first page of each document may be provided.

- (2) That the appellant vide para 5 of his said application has also made a declaration that the information sought for is not exempted under Section 8 or 9 of the RTI Act, 2005 and also stated that to the best of the knowledge of the appellant, the information pertains to the Office of the CPIO in question.
- (3) That Shri V.K. Rajan, CPIO, Ministry of Home Affairs, has deliberately and malafidely provided incomplete and incorrect information despite point-wise specific information sought by the Appellant. The appellant being aggrieved by the said order of the CPIO is filing the present appeal.

GROUND OF APPEAL

- (1) That the order in question of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and contrary to the provisions and spirit of the RTI Act, 2005 hence liable to be set aside.
- (2) That the information sought by the appellant is not exempted under Section 8 or 9 or any other provisions of the RTI Act, 2005, therefore, there was no valid cause or reason or ground for not providing the information.
- (3) That Shri V.K. Rajan, CPIO, Ministry of Home Affairs, has deliberately and malafidely provided incomplete and incorrect information despite point-wise specific information sought by the Appellant. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (4) That the CPIO has not provided the name and designation of the Officials who are responsible for making voluntary disclosure u/s 4 of the RTI Act. This information was sought in point A(ii) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (5) That the CPIO has not provided any information in relation to point (B) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.

- (6) That the CPIO has provided incorrect and misleading information in relation to point (C) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (7) That the Ministry of Home Affairs is not complying with the provisions of section 4 of the RTI Act nor they have complied with the DOPT OM dated 15-4-2013 in order to cover up their lapses. The CPIO is providing incomplete, incorrect and misleading information. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame and he is also liable for penalty under section 20(1) of the RTI Act and recommendation for disciplinary action under section 20(2) of the RTI Act, for delaying and obstructing the information in question without any reasonable cause.
- (8) That the CPIO has erred in not providing the information to the appellant though as per the provisions of the RTI Act, the appellant is entitled to information as sought by him. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is liable to be set aside with direction to provide the information to the appellant within time bound frame.
- (9) That the information sought is neither voluminous nor relate to older and larger period, thus could have easily been provided by the learned CPIO.
- (10) That as per proviso to Section 8(1) of the RTI Act, 2005, the information which can not be denied to the Parliament or the State Legislatures shall not be denied to any person. The information sought by the appellant in the subject application is the one which cannot be denied to the Parliament or the State Legislatures and hence it cannot be denied or refused to the appellant.
- (11) That a personal hearing may be granted to the appellant before deciding the present appeal.
- (12) This is without prejudice to the right of the appellant to add, alter or modify any of the grounds of this appeal and adduce oral or written evidence at the time of hearing or till the appeal is disposed of.

PRAYER

Under the circumstances, the appellant prays as under:

- (a) That the Original Records may be summoned and perused.

- (b) That the order of the CPIO may be set aside to the extent it has been appealed against and CPIO/Deemed CPIOs may be directed to provide the information in question within time bound frame.
- (c) That imposition of penalty may also be recommended against the CPIO for not providing the complete and correct information.
- (d) That any other relief as the Appellate Authority deem fit and proper may also be ordered in favour of the appellant.
- (e) That a personal hearing may be granted to the appellant before deciding the appeal.
