MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(FFR DIVISION)

SWATANTRATA SAINIK SAMMAN PENSION SCHEME, 1980

CITIZEN CHARTER

INTRODUCTION:

During twenty fifth anniversary (Silver Jubilee year) of India's Independence, a Central Scheme for grant of pension to the freedom fighters and their families from the Central Revenues was introduced by the Government of India. The Scheme commenced from 15th August, 1972 and provided for grant of pension to living freedom fighters or their (as of the martyrs) eligible dependents. In 1980, the Scheme was liberalized and renamed as "Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme, 1980". It was made effective from 1st August, 1980.

PENSION AMOUNT

Statement showing the amount of Central Samman Pension w.e.f. 15.08.2016

(In Rupees Per Month)

Sl. No.	Category of freedom fighters	Present amount of pension including DR (per month)	Proposed enhanced amount pension (per month)	Net increase in total amount of pension (per month)	No. of Pensioners

The existing Dearness Relief system based on All India Consumer Price Index for Industrial workers, which was hitherto applied to freedom fighter pensioners on annual basis, may be discontinued and replaced by the Dearness Allowance system applicable to Central Government employees twice a year. This will be termed as "Dearness Relief", which is the appropriate word in case of pensioners.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

For the purpose of grant of Samman Pension under the scheme, a freedom fighter is :-

- (A) a person who had suffered minimum imprisonment of six months in the mainland jails before independence. Ex-INA personnel are also eligible for pension if the imprisonment/detention suffered by them was outside India for six months or more. In case of women and SC/ST freedom fighters the minimum period of actual imprisonment for eligibility of pension is three months.

Explanation:

Detention under the orders of the competent authority will be considered as imprisonment.

- (i) Period of normal remission upto one month will be treated as part of actual imprisonment.
  - (ii) In case of a trial ending in conviction, under trial period will be counted towards suffered.
  - (iii) Broken period(s) of imprisonment will be totalled up for computing the qualifying period.
  - (iv) A person who was sentenced for imprisonment for six months or more, but was released prematurely on account of general amnesty and not on account of tendering apology/furnishing a bond or undertaking for good behavior will be treated as eligible for pension.
- (B) A person who remained underground for six months or more provided he was:-
- i) a proclaimed offender
  - ii) one on whom an award for arrest/head was announced; or
  - iii) one whose detention order was issued but not served.

Explanation:

Voluntary underground suffering or self-exile, suffering for party work under the command of the party leaders are not recognized for consideration for grant of Samman Pension.

- (C) a person who was interned in his home or externed from his district under the orders of the competent authority for six months or more.
- (D) a person whose property was confiscated or attached and sold due to participation in the national freedom struggle under the orders of the competent authority.
- (E) a person who was permanently incapacitated during firing or lathi charge.
- (F) a person who lost his Government job (Central or State Government, including job in local bodies) and thus deprived of means of livelihood for participation in the National Freedom Struggle.
- (G) a person who was awarded the punishment of ten strokes of caning/ flogging/ whipping.

WHO IS MARTYR

A martyr is a person who died or who was killed in action or in detention or was awarded capital punishment while participating in the National Freedom Struggle for emancipation of India. It includes an ex-INA or ex-military person who died while fighting against the British.

WHO ARE ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS

After death of freedom fighter pensioner, eligible dependents for family pension are spouse/unmarried & unemployed daughters/mother or father.

At one point of time not more than one category of eligible dependent/s can be granted pension. In the event of availability of more than one category of dependents, the sequence of eligibility will be widow/widower, unmarried and unemployed daughters (up to max. 3 daughters), mother or father.

Dependent pensions is not sanctioned to a spouse or a daughter of a freedom fighter if :-

- (i) The spouse/daughter is already employed in a Central or a State Government, Central/State PSU or local body and income from such job/activity exceeds ₹ 2,40,000/- per year or ₹ 20,000/- per month.
- (ii) In case the spouse/daughter is working in a private sector or having his/her own business/activity then income from such job/activity exceeds ₹ 2,40,000/- per year or ₹ 20,000/- per month.
- (iii) The spouse/daughter is receiving a pension/salary on account of his or her own job or by virtue of the previous employment of the deceased freedom fighter and income from such job/activity exceeds ₹ 2,40,000/- per year or ₹ 20,000/- per month''.

In this regard, the claimant (spouse/daughter) having any other source of income requires to submit a duly authenticated under taking to the bank concerned as per Annexure VII, of revised policy guide line.

MOVEMENTS/MUTINIES ETC. RECOGNIZED

Apart from the mainstream of the liberation struggle the movements/mutinies etc. which were directed against the British (French in case of Puducherry and Portuguese in case of Goa) with freedom of the country as its ultimate goal, are treated as National Freedom Struggle for the purpose of grant of pension unless any movement(s) is specifically decided as not qualifying for the grant of Samman Pension.

The movements for merger of erstwhile Princely States within the Indian Union after 15th August, 1947 are also considered as part of the National Freedom Struggle for the purpose of grant of Samman Pension under the Scheme.

A consolidated list of movements, mutinies, struggles etc., participation and suffering in which is recognized for the purpose of grant of pension is at ANNEXURE-I.

The list however is only an administrative compilation of movements considered from time to time. There also exists a negative list of movements/mutinies/struggles/riots/strikes etc., participation and suffering in which is not recognized for the purpose of grant of freedom fighter's pension from the revenues (ANNEXURE-II).

HOW TO APPLY

Persons, who consider themselves eligible for Samman Pension under the Scheme, should apply in duplicate, on the prescribed application form. One form, duly filled and supported by required documents as proof of claim of suffering, should be sent to the Chief Secretary of the concerned State Government/Union Territory Administration.
