D.O. No.24013/56/Misc/2016-CSR.III

Dated: January 12, 2017

Dear

As you may be aware, post-demonetisation a drive has been undertaken to balance cash availability all over the country and that Reserve Bank of India has permitted all Banks to transfer currency from one chest to another chest operated by them within the State or at inter-State level until further instructions.

2. The safe, secure and speedy inter-State and intra-State movement of currency from currency chests to various Bank branches/ATMs would require police protection at some of the places where Banks may apprehend security concerns.

It is, therefore, requested that prompt action may be ensured by providing security to the cash vans at places where such request is made by the Bank authorities to the State Police. While doing so, the Police authorities may keep the Chief Electoral Officers informed in poll-bound States.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/
