2. The following points should be noted before reliving and deployment and also go through the facsimile received from Police division carefully (copy enclosed):

- CASH: They must bring sufficient cash (USD) to sustain two (2) weeks during the induction in a regional Center or the Mission Area (at least $100 per day). Officer's can't expect to receive MSA on the day of arrival and need to be able to pay for food and hotel. The MSA payments, including the final one are hindered with the lack of required national banking details of the UN Police officers back home. During the check-in, UN Police officer must provide the details of bank accounts in their own country i.e. Account Name, Account Number, Account Type (checking or saving), Bank Name, SWIFT code, IBAN number (if available) bank address, including city and country.
- Travel Arrangements :- The new incoming officers should arrive in Entebbe, Uganda, for 1-wwk pre-deployment induction training. They will proceed to UNMISS (Juba) by UN flight after the completion of the induction training. It is highly recommended to dispatch the accompanying luggage to Juba as the luggage transportation capacity from Entebbe to JUBA is limited.
- VISA: Please be advised that at the moment, no entry visa is required for the incoming UN STAFF.
- Vaccination Certificate – Yellow Fever vaccination and malaria vaccination are mandatory and proof of immunisation must be produced at entry for all travellers.
- Malaria: Malaria Prophylaxis is required. Please see the Guidelines for UN Police Officers on assignment with peace keeping operations and the Travel Advisory which is attached to the travel authorisation.
- Fragmentation VEST & HELMET:- With reference to the guidelines for UN police officers on assignment with peace keeping operations and to the equipment list for police officers (list attached). Each Police officer must bring a fragmentation vest and Kevlar helmet for his/her personal protection. Failure to meet this requirement may result in the denial of the deployment.
- In-Mission test in Language & Driving – Police Officers are subject to in-mission assessment in driving skills. Police officers must have at least two years recent driving experience, and must be in possession of valid national or international civilian driving licenses. Police officers must present their valid national driving licences upon arrival in the mission area., The license should be valid during their service.
- Online Courses : Please be advised that the following online courses are mandatory for newcomer(s), and certificate will be needed for the check-in formalities upon their arrival. Certificates must be printed upon completion of courses, if a printer is not available, all staff may be able to log-on at one of the Mission computers to print the certificates upon arrival (Links given below):

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Please be informed that first ten (10) of 19 Indian police officers have been selected for deployment to the UN Mission in the Republic of South Sudan (UNMISS). Deployment details are attached herewith. Recommended date of arrival at the Mission is 18 June 2017. 2. Please be noted that new arrivals can be received by the Mission only during the weekends, hence if arrival of the above mentioned officers has to be postponed, the formal notification should be forwarded to the Police Division without any delay. New date(s) of arrival will be communicated with the Permanent Mission in due course. Arrival in the Mission without coordination with the Police Division must not be practiced. 3. UNMISS Travel Unit will issue the travel authorization and e-tickets and make all travel arrangements. We would be grateful if you could expedite the administrative and logistic procedures for the deployment. Enclosed please find recommended equipment list. 4. It should be noted that upon arrival in the Mission, the officers may be assigned any tasks in any region of South Sudan and any pillar of the UN Police Component, subject to operational need. UNMISS specificity demands from the UNPOL officers readiness to implement mandated tasks in harsh service conditions they may face in the Mission area. 5. TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS: The new incoming officers should arrive in Entebbe, Uganda, for 1-week pre-deployment induction training. They will proceed to UNMISS (Juba) by UN flight after the completion of the induction training. It is highly recommended to dispatch the accompanying luggage to Juba as the luggage

11. IN-MISSION TEST IN LANGUAGE & DRIVING: Police officers must have at least two years recent driving experience, and must be in possession of valid national or international civilian driving licenses. Police officers must present their valid national driving licences upon arrival in the mission area. The license should be valid during their service.

The Police Division wishes to remind the Permanent Mission that incoming police officers are subject to in-mission assessment in driving skills and English Language if they have not been cleared by a UN SAAT team. Please be advised that if any of them fails such assessments he/she will be repatriated at the expense of the national Government. Alternately, if he/she had successfully passed SAT tests earlier, only his/her driving skills will be re-examined. The officers, who return to the mission area within the 18/24-month period after their departure from that mission, are considered as those SAAT cleared.

12. ONLINE COURSES: Please be advised that the following online courses are mandatory for the newcomers, and certificates will be needed for the check-in formalities upon their arrival. Certificates must be printed upon completion of courses, if a printer is not available, all staff may be able to log-on at one of the Mission computers to print the certificates upon arrival in Entebbe (links given below):
