Government of India/Bharat Sarkar
Ministry of Home Affairs

N.D.C.C. II Building,
Jai Singh Road, New Delhi,
Dated the 23rd May 2017

The Chief Secretaries,
All State Governments / UT Administrations.

Subject : Actionable points on recommendations of the DsGP/IsGP Conference- 2016 held on 25-27 Nov 2016 at NPA Hyderabad, Separation of law & order duty from investigation- Regarding.

Sir/Madam,

Attention is invited to this Ministry's Advisory No. 24013/201/2009-CSR.III dated 16th July 2010 regarding Prevention, Registration, Investigation and Prosecution of Crime a copy of which is enclosed for ready reference. This Ministry vide its above referred advisory has urged States/UTs that the investigation of crime may be separated from the law & order duty to the police officials and encourage outsourcing non-core police functions to free more policemen for the core policing functions.

2. States have certainly made sincere attempts to improve the criminal justice system. Increasing number of total cognizable crime cases reported in 2013, 2014 and 2015 as 6640378, 7229193, 7326099 respectively (Annexure-I) indicate that people are now more aware of their rights and believe in reporting the crime. At the same time, it is noticed that while there is considerable improvement in registration of FIRs, the percentage of IPC cases investigated stands at 68.4%, 71.8% 71.5% respectively for year 2013 to 2015 (Annexure-II) whereas cases of crime against women, this percentage is just 61.8%, 68.4% and 66.5% respectively (Annexure-III). Data also indicates that there is backlog of cases taken up for investigation and over the period, there is a declining trend in cases in which chargesheets are submitted as compared to total cases in which investigations have been completed by the police.

3. Justice delayed is Justice denied. Time bound completion of investigations is essential to ensure delivery of speedy justice. Law commission of India in its 154th report clearly brought out this aspect by giving following recommendations:

- i) There should be a separate and exclusive cadre of investigating agency to investigate grave offences in every district subject to supervision by the higher authorities. When a case is taken up for investigation by an officer of such agency, he should be in charge of the case throughout till the conclusion of the trial. He should take the responsibility for production of witnesses, production of accused and for assisting the prosecuting agency.

(Ch. II, Para 7)

ii) The police official entrusted with the investigation of grave offences should be separate and distinct from those entrusted with the enforcement of law and order and other miscellaneous duties. Separate investigating agency directly under the supervision of a designated Superintendent of Police be constituted. The hierarchy of the officers in such agency should have adequate training and incentives for furthering effective investigations. The respective Law and Home Departments of various State Governments may work out details for structuring and betterment of their conditions of service.

(Ch. II, Para 9)

iii) The officials of the investigating police force be made responsible for helping the courts in the conduct of cases and speedy trial by ensuring timely attendance of witnesses, production of accused and proper co-ordination with prosecuting agency. Other necessary steps should also be taken for promoting efficiency in investigation. Accordingly, that necessary changes in the Police Acts, both Central and State, Police Regulations, Police Standing Orders, Police Manuals, be made by the Home Departments in consultation with the Law Departments of State Governments.

(Ch. II, Para 9)

4. While States have put in place organizations such as Crime Bureau and Crime investigation department, which deal with specific cases of grave offences either entrusted by state government or the courts, whereas all other cases continue to be handled by police at local level. Since local police is entrusted with critical function of ensuring law & order, entrusting such responsibilities to them not only slows down the investigation process but may impact the quality of investigation as well as maintenance of law and order.

5. Supreme Court vide its order dated 22/09/2006 in Writ Petition (civil) 310 of 1996 in the matter of Prakash Singh Vs Union of India has issued seven directives wherein 4th directives states that 'The investigating police shall be separated from the law and order police to ensure speedier investigation, better expertise and improved rapport with the people. It must, however, be ensured that there is full coordination between the two wings. The separation, to start with, may be effected in towns/urban areas which have a population of ten lakhs or more, and gradually extended to smaller towns/urban areas also.' Court further directed that these directions shall be complied with by the Central Government, State Governments or Union Territories, as the case may be, on or before 31st December, 2006 so that the bodies afore-noted became operational on the onset of the new year. The Cabinet Secretary, Government of India and the Chief Secretaries of State Governments/Union Territories are directed to file affidavits of compliance by 3rd January, 2007.

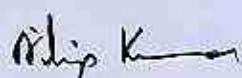

6. While 'Police' and 'Public Order' are State subjects under the Seventh Schedule (List-II) to the Constitution of India, the Union Government attaches the highest importance to prevention of crime and, therefore, has been advising the State Governments/ UT Administrations from time to time to give more focused attention to the administration of the criminal justice system with emphasis on prevention and control of crime. It is therefore the prime responsibility of States/UTs to make use of the mechanism available with it ensure that investigations of all offences are concluded in a time bound manner and public trust in criminal justice system gets strengthened.

7. Since amendment to Police Act by States may take longer time, the States/UTs are advised to take following immediate steps in the direction of separating law & order from investigation duty:

- a) Establish investigation cell in all districts.
- b) These cells may be headed by SP rank officer and supported by other officials as deemed fit, taking into account the crime scenario.
- c) All new cases may be entrusted to this cell while investigations already underway may continue to be dealt as per existing system.
- d) A roadmap may be made to separate law & order duty from investigation in a time bound manner.
- e) An investigation monitoring cell may be established at State/UT HQ level to supervise and guide the local investigation teams. This cell may be headed by ADG rank officer.
- f) Charge sheet must be filed as soon as the investigation gets completed so that trials get concluded early.
- g) Proper & regular training may be arranged for investigating officers to improve their skill level in use of technology as well as techniques.
- h) Take appropriate steps to ensure that all vacancies in police force get filled in a time bound manner.
- i) Consider outsourcing of non-core police functions to free more policemen for the core policing functions.

8. It is requested to take action as advised in para 7 above and convey roadmap for its implementation in your State/UT within a month which would help in strengthening the criminal justice system. Progress made by States/UTs shall be reviewed in coming DGsP/IGsP conference which is chaired by Hon'ble Prime Minister.

Yours faithfully,

(Dilip Kumar)
