2. The aim of the course is to strengthen the capacity of Member States to deliver UN-required Child Protection training for police personnel deploying to Peacekeeping Operations, especially in challenging environments where Child Protection is mandated by the Security Council. 3. In view of the above, ITS would like to extend an invitation to nominate up to two police training officers to attend this course. Candidates must be either engaged in delivering UN pre-deployment training for national police personnel, about to be allocated this responsibility or be responsible for overseeing the delivery of such training. A number of participants will be also identified as potential members of future ITS-led Mobile Training Teams (MTT).
