APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR POSITIONS IN THE STANDING POLICE CAPACITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS POLICE DIVISION
REQUIRING OFFICIAL SECONDMENT FROM NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS OF MEMBER STATES OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Outlined below are the procedures to be followed by Permanent Missions for the presentation of candidates to posts requiring secondment from active police service, which are open for recruitment within the Standing Police Capacity (SPC) of the United Nations Police Division, with its duty station in the United Nations Global Service Centre (UNGSC) in Brindisi, Italy. In the interest of promoting an orderly process and to avoid delay in the consideration of applications, Permanent Missions are respectfully requested to adhere closely to these procedures.

1. The above mentioned posts are reserved for candidates recommended by Member States through their Permanent Missions to the United Nations. Candidates applying independently will not be considered. It is requested that applications be submitted as soon as possible. Applications received after the deadline specified in each Job Opening will not be considered.
2. All applications must be submitted on a duly completed (typed) and signed United Nations Personal History Form (P.11) or printed Personal History Profile (PHP). Applications using other formats will not be accepted, but additional information may be attached to the P. 11. or PHP. For the convenience of the Permanent Missions a P. 11. form is enclosed as a sample to be photocopied as needed. Also enclosed is the P.11 supplementary sheet and the Employment and Academic Certification (EAC) form.
3. Selection for service with the United Nations is made on a competitive basis. It is therefore essential that all the Personal History Forms be completed with a view to presenting the candidates qualifications and experiences as they relate to the requirements as set out in the relevant Job Opening. In the event a Permanent Mission wishes to recommend a candidate for several posts, a separate Personal History Form should be submitted for each post.
4. Permanent Mission are requested to present their candidates in one single submission, in accordance with the deadline date of the Job Opening, under cover of a Note Verbale listing the names of the candidates and the corresponding vacancy announcements.
5. Applications must be hand-delivered by Permanent Missions to the Selections and Recruitment Section of the Police Division, Office of Rule and Law and Security Institutions, Department of Peacekeeping Operations at DC1, 7th Floor, Room: 784 in accordance with the specific directions in the relevant Note Verbale.
6. Upon delivery of the applications, the Selections and Recruitment Section will acknowledge the receipt to the individual making the delivery.

7. Communication regarding this process will be through the Permanent Mission only. The Secretariat will not entertain personal queries from individual applicants.

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations and has the honour to invite its Government to nominate individual police officers in active service for appointment on secondment to the Standing Police Capacity of the Police Division, with its duty station in the United Nations Global Service Centre (UNGSC) formerly known as UNLB with its duty station in Brindisi, Italy, for an initial period of one year, with possibility of extension.

Details regarding the posts for which the Secretariat is seeking qualified applicants are provided in the attached Job Openings 2018-SPC-75905-DPKO and 2018-SPC-75904-DPKO. Also attached is the "Application Procedure for Position in the Standing Police Capacity of the United Nations Police Division Requiring Official Secondment from National Governments of United Nations Member States".

The Secretariat kindly requests the Permanent Mission to submit a separate application for each nominee for each Job Opening to the Selection and Recruitment Section/Police Division/OROLSI/DPKO, DC1-0784, in accordance with the above-referenced procedures, certifying that the nominee/s meet/s the requirements in the attached Job Opening/s. Applications submitted after the deadline specified in the Job Opening will not be considered.

The Permanent Mission is also requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from the national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. It is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is indicated on the application, if applicable. In addition, it is strongly recommended that Member States carefully pre-screen their applicants and submit only those candidates meeting all requirements for the position as described in the Job Opening.

Member States are strongly encouraged to nominate qualified female police officers. Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates. It should be noted that during the period of their secondment, officers may not transfer to alternative positions within the United Nations and they may only serve with the United Nations for a maximum period of four years. As a result, the nomination of military and police officers who are currently on secondment will not be considered.

The Secretariat wishes to inform that the Permanent Mission of Member State that in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates placed on a roster following the selection process may be considered for posts with similar functions within a period of one year and if recommended for deployment, further arrangements will be coordinated with the Permanent Mission in due course.

The Secretariat wishes to outline that it is the responsibility of the Government to ensure that each candidate it nominates has not been convicted of, or is not currently under investigation or being prosecuted for, any criminal or disciplinary offence, or any violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve the United Nations are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instructions of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization.

This request is being transmitted to all Member States, in compliance with General Assembly resolution 51/243 of 15 September 1997.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.
