DPO/OROI SI/PD/2019/201

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations and has the honour to invite its Government to nominate individual police officers in active service for appointment on secondment to the Standing Police Capacity of the Police Division, with its duty station in the United Nations Logistics Base in Brindisi, Italy (UNLB), for a period of one year. Any further contract extension can be granted on an exceptional basis provided there is a mission mandate requirement and the incumbent displays good performance, dedication, professionalism and the achieved results. The final decision on the extension is subject to approval by the United Nations and concurrence by the national authorities.

Details regarding the post/s for which the Secretariat is seeking qualified applicants are provided in the attached job opening/s No 2019-SPC-75916-DPO, 2019-SPC-75918-DPO, 2019-SPC-75911-DPO, 2019-SPC-75909-DPO, 2019-SPC-75773-DPO, 2019-SPC-75776-DPO and 2019-SPC-75924-DPO. Also attached are the "Application Procedures for Positions in United Nations Police Components in Peacekeeping Operations and Special Political Missions Requiring Official Secondment from National Governments of Member States of the United Nations".

The Secretariat kindly requests the Permanent Mission to submit a separate application for each nominee for each job opening to the Selection and Recruitment Section/ Police Division/OROLSI/DPO, 1 UN Plaza, 7th floor, room DC1-0716, in accordance with the above-referenced procedures, certifying that the nominee/s meet/s the requirements in the attached job opening/s. Applications submitted after the deadline specified in the job opening will not be considered.

The Permanent Mission is also requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from the national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. It is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is indicated on the application. In addition, it is strongly recommended that Member States carefully pre-screen their applicants and submit only those candidates meeting all requirements for the position as described in the job opening/s.

Member States are strongly encouraged to nominate qualified female police officers. Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.

The Secretariat wishes to inform the Permanent Mission of Member State that, in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates placed on a roster following the selection process may be considered for posts with similar functions within a period of two years and if recommended for deployment, further arrangements will be coordinated with the Permanent Mission in due course.

It should be noted that during the period of their secondment, officers may not transfer to alternative positions within the United Nations. As a result, the nomination of police officers who are currently United Nations staff members on secondment, will not be considered.

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns as to the record and performance of [country] police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in UN peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance approach to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country concerned.

The Secretariat also recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve in United Nations peacekeeping or special political missions are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instructions of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

CIRCULATION LIMITED TO MEMBER STATES. APPOINTMENTS ARE LIMITED TO SERVICE ON POSTS FINANCED BY THE SUPPORT ACCOUNT OF PEACE OPERATIONS.

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: The Community Policing Adviser will report to a Team Leader of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in UN peace operations as well as assisting existing operations on a continual basis. It is envisaged that the incumbent will deploy to missions and be away from his/her duty station for an initial period from three to six months. The incumbent will be responsible for developing and implementing a wide variety of community oriented policing principles and programmes as required within the terms of reference of respective SPC assignments. When at headquarters in Brindisi s/he will study and isolate best practices in community oriented policing at the national and international levels with a view to formulating precise activities that the SPC can support once deployed on the ground, noting the primary rationale of UN Police which is to build institutional police capacity in countries and environments affected by conflicts and post-conflict environments. This work will include developing and regularly updating a Community oriented Policing Conceptual and Operational Framework in collaboration with the Police Division of the Department of Peace Operations and UN Police operations in the field. S/he will identify potential new and existing field operations wherein either community oriented policing pilots and other programmes can be implemented by the UN in co-operation with relevant international and national partners, including donors, or where existing community oriented policing programmes can be enhanced and/or expanded with the special assistance and know-how of the SPC. When deployed in the field missions, the Community Policing Adviser will work closely with UN Police and other police-support and rule of law actors in the mission area to advise and support local law enforcement with community oriented policing activities. This work will involve making recommendations on how local law enforcement should be organized, structured, trained and resourced to support community oriented policing at all levels, with a particular focus towards improving law enforcement relations and consultation with and understanding of the position of women, children and other vulnerable groups in environments affected by conflicts around which violence and crime often centres including former combatants, refugees and internally displaced persons.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Demonstrated mastery of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety and institutional capacity-building; experience in community oriented policing concepts and methods. Shows pride in work and in achievements. Demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter. Is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns. Shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges. Remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in law, social sciences, criminal justice or related field. A combination of a Bachelor's degree and extensive experience in police operational matters including community oriented policing may be accepted in lieu of the advanced degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or other law enforcement training facility is required. Work Experience: A minimum of seven years of progressively responsible experience in active national police service at the strategic, operational and administrative levels with the rank of Superintendent or Lt. Colonel, other service equivalent or higher rank is required. At least three years of specific experience in community-oriented policing, both policy-making and implementation is required. Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other international organizations is desirable. Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Fluency in French is desirable.

CIRCULATION LIMITED TO MEMBER STATES. APPOINTMENTS ARE LIMITED TO SERVICE ON POSTS FINANCED BY THE SUPPORT ACCOUNT OF PEACE OPERATIONS.

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of a Team Leader of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), the Logistics Planning Officer provides assistance and know-how in the field of logistics and the field of new technologies as pertaining to improving the overall effectiveness and efficiency of law enforcement operations. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in new UN peace operations as well as assisting existing operations and partners on a continual basis. When at the duty station, the incumbent works with all staff and logistical and other administrative experts in the Department of Peace Operations to ensure that logistical planning for law enforcement is adequately included into the terms of reference of respective SPC assignments as well as other UN Police operations in the planning stage. S/he will coordinate UN efforts in key working groups in the field of new and/or advanced technologies. This involves undertaking analyses and surveys of UN Police logistical needs and practices with a view to preparing a series of varied logistical support analyses and plans for the SPC to execute once deployed on the ground. When deployed in the field, s/he assists UN Police and logistical experts in support of the purchasing, transport, delivery and storage of law enforcement equipment and material to the mission area and analyses the local environment to determine procurement and other logistical needs and possibilities for national law enforcement. S/he identifies and assists all possible sources of logistical assistance and funding to help realize the creation of base-line logistical capacity in local law enforcement agencies, including the creation and maintenance of a core fleet of vehicles, law enforcement personal gear, non-lethal and other weapons, crowd management equipment, communications systems, training facilities and equipment and others as required.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to police logistics and new or advanced technologies in regard to democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety, capacity-building and logistics in the field of law enforcement; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills. Demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter. Is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns. Shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges. Remains calm in stressful situations. Investigations Adviser, P-4

DUTY STATION

BRINDISI

ORGANIZATIONAL UNIT

DEPARTMENT OF PEACE OPERATIONS

INDICATIVE MINIMUM GROSS ANNUAL

U.S. Dollars 84,268

REMUNERATION (NOT INCLUDING POST ADJUSTMENT)

CIRCULATION LIMITED TO MEMBER STATES. APPOINTMENTS ARE LIMITED TO SERVICE ON POSTS FINANCED BY THE SUPPORT ACCOUNT OF PEACE OPERATIONS.

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: The Investigations Adviser reports directly to a Team Leader of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), which is a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in new UN peace operations as well as assisting existing operations on a continual basis. The incumbent is expected to be deployed to peace operations for periods from 3 up to 6 months away from his/her duty station. The incumbent provides a wide spectrum of advisory and assistance in the field of combating transnational crime, organized crime and other emerging crime issues, especially in post-conflict environments. She provides expert advice and assistance on law enforcement investigation procedures, practices and techniques in the context of the SPC's planning at headquarters and specific assignments in the field. Focus is placed on advising and supporting various aspects of investigating serious crimes, including transnational organized crime, crime scene and forensic evidence matters. The incumbent speaks on technical issues affecting the investigation of serious crimes, such as pre-trial discovery, collection, classification, rules of evidence, and the identification and protection of crime scenes. When at the duty station, the incumbent engages in Serious Crime Analysis and undertakes relevant studies and surveys of serious crime factors as they pertain to the mandates of respective UN Police components in UN peace operations. This work includes determining the specific role to be played by the SPC in providing UN Police in the field with investigations assistance and/or supporting the development of this capacity in national law enforcement agencies that the UN Police are tasked to assist. In the field, she works closely with UN Police and national law enforcement authorities in mapping out threats to public security originating from serious crime incidents and lack of law enforcement investigation. The Investigations Adviser develops and supports the implementation of local programs and other activities aimed at strengthening the procedures and rules governing national law enforcement investigations of serious crimes, including the spectrum of transnational crime. From the perspective of building institutional law enforcement capacity in post-conflict environments, which is the strategic mission of UN Police, the incumbent seeks to support organizational and structural change in national law enforcement agencies, such as the creation of professional law enforcement investigative units, and advises the national police and other law enforcement officials in planning, developing, and implementing programs and activities to deal with transnational crime and to provide specialized institutional capacity-building assistance in this area.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety and capacity-building; relevant knowledge of the conduct and performance of investigations in a national law enforcement agency, including in the field of combating transnational crime; knowledge of the current trends and developments in the field of investigations, in general and pertaining to transnational and organized crime. Good research, analytical and problem-solving skills; ability to identify and participate in the resolution of complex issues and problems. Demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter. Is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns. Shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges. Remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in the applied sciences, social sciences, laws or other relevant field. A first level university degree with a relevant combination of academic qualifications and extensive experience in police operational matters, including serious crime investigations may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or other law enforcement training facility is required. Work Experience: A minimum of seven years of active law enforcement experience on a wide range of operational and administrative issues, including three years of experience in management and policy-making with regard to serious crime investigations including of transnational organized crime and crime scene management/forensics is required. In active national police service with a rank of Superintendent or Lt. Colonel, other service equivalent or higher rank is required. Experience in the use of modern Internet-based research methodologies and sources are required. Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other organizations is desirable. Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Fluency in French is desirable.

Date of Issuance: 29 October 2019

Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates

CIRCULATION LIMITED TO MEMBER STATES. APPOINTMENTS ARE LIMITED TO SERVICE ON POSTS FINANCED BY THE SUPPORT ACCOUNT OF PEACE OPERATIONS.

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of a Team Leader of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), the incumbent advises and assists on the law enforcement maintenance of public order including crowd management and riot control. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in new UN peace operations as well as assisting existing operations on a continual basis. The incumbent provides advice on the deployment and use of international Formed Police Units (FPUs) in UN peace operations as well as the development of this capacity in indigenous law enforcement agencies that UN Police are mandated to assist. Activities are undertaken with regard to building institutional law enforcement capacity in the public order field, in line with the strategic mission of UN Police. When at Brindisi, the incumbent interacts closely with officials in the Police Division of the Department of Peace Operations and develops doctrine and concepts of operation on law enforcement and public order matters relevant to the respective assignments given to the SPC. S/he reviews current UN Police operations with a view to formulating proposals on public order assistance that the SPC is expected to undertake once deployed on the ground. When deployed in the field, the incumbent advises and assists UN Police in the deployment and use of FPUs as well as other public order practices and advises local law enforcement on the full breadth of law enforcement responses to ensure public order. Focus is placed on the organizational and structure changes required in indigenous law enforcement as well as developing local capacity and tactics for law enforcement units in crowd management and anti-riot operations, both during peaceful as well as violent demonstrations and protests. The incumbent pays particular attention to the needs and requirements of indigenous formed police capacities and makes expert recommendations to support their overall development. S/he may also provide advice and assistance on crowd-related issues, close police protection of VIPs, policing diplomatic compounds and other representative areas, and providing police convoy and escort services.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety and capacity building; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills; ability to identify and participate in the resolution of complex issues and problems. Shows pride in work and in achievements. Demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter. Is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns. Shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges. Remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in the applied sciences, social sciences or other relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications and extensive experience in police operational matters, including public order maintenance may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required. Work Experience: A minimum of 7 years of active law enforcement experience in a national law enforcement agency at the strategic, operational and administrative levels, including at least three years of experience in crowd management and riot control and other public order matters, both with regards to policy-making and implementation, is required. Must be in active national police service with the rank of Superintendent or Lt. Colonel, other service equivalent or higher rank is required. Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other organizations is desired. Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN.
