Sir,

Please refer your RTI application dated 04.07.2013 submitted under the RTI Act, 2005, received on transfer on 01.08.13.

2. It is informed that the State Government concerned are primarily responsible for undertaking necessary rescue & relief measures in the wake of natural disasters including flash flood/landslide & Cloub burst. The distribution of relief on ground is the responsibility of the State Government concerned. The Government of India supplements the efforts of the State Governments by providing financial and logistic support, if required to meet the situation effectively. For this purpose, a State Disaster Response Fund (SDRF) has been constituted with an allocated amount for each State. The State Governments are expected to take relief measures of immediate nature, out of the funds available in the SDRF. State Executive Committee headed by the Chief Secretary is empowered to operate the relief fund and also responsible to ensure that money drawn from the SDRF is actually utilized for the purpose for which the SDRF has been setup, and only on items of expenditure, and as per norms contained in the guidelines issued by the GOI. These items & norms are uploaded on the website of this Ministry www.ndmindia.in.

3. With regard to compensation, it is stated that financial relief is provided towards relief only not for compensation of loss. Relief is by way of gratuitous assistane as an immediate help to over come the stress.

4. It is to inform you that, Government of India has released an amount of Rs. 145 crore from State Disaster Response Fund on 20th June, 2013. In addition, GOI has released an amount of Rs. 250 crore on an 'on account' basis from the National Disaster Response Fund on 19th July, 2013.

5. However, information asked under your application is related to the State Government of Uttarakhand and Delhi Government which are being sent to them for their appropriate action.

6. If you are not satisfied with this reply, you may prefer an appeal under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 within thirty days from its receipt to
