Sir,

With reference to your RTI application Registration No. MHOME/R/2014/61500 dated 26.06.2014, the information available with this CPIO is as under:

The Governors are appointed by the President in terms of article 155 of the Constitution for a term of office as provided under Article 156 of the Constitution. The qualification for appointment of a Governor is prescribed under article 157 of the Constitution and the conditions of Governor's Office are provided under article 158 of the Constitution. The President has unfettered power to remove a Governor under article 156(1) of the Constitution.

2. As per Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, an appeal against this letter would lie before Shri S. Suresh Kumar, Joint Secretary (CS) and the First Appellate Authority, Ministry of Home Affairs, NDCC-II Building, Jai Singh Road, New Delhi.

Yours faithfully,

(Ashutosh Jain)
CPIO & Director

Information Sought : What is the procedure of appointing a governor on what basis the governor of Maharashtra, assam, uttar pradesh, goa were appointed, what rules were followed, now by which rule home ministry have told governors to give resignation. I was thinking the governor post is apolitical post, they why politician become governor, why there is no collegium to appoint and removing the governor

Can you please provide the answer of all the question and provide me the rules to appoint and removing governors also answer me if in this way governor can be appointed and removed then what is the need of governor office, why we waste such a huge money on governors
