Sub: Information sought under RTI Act, 2005.

Madam,

Please refer to your RTI application dated 16.04.2014 forwarded to Coordination Division by RTI Section of this Ministry vide their O.M. No.A-43020/01/2004-Coord.II Dated 09.05.2014 received in this Section on 20.06.2014. You have sought information in connection with the proposal of Ministry of Home Affairs for inclusion of various departments of this Ministry in second schedule under Section 24 of RTI Act, 2005.

2. Coordination-II Section is not related with the subject matter of your RTI application and hence we have no information to disclose in this regard. However, your RTI application is forwarded to all CPIO(s) of this Ministry for taking appropriate action as per provision of RTI Act, 2005.

No. A-43020/01/2014-RTI

Ministry of Home Affairs
RTI Section

Subject: Applications filed under the RTI Act, 2005 – forwarding thereof.

The RTI Section had received applications under the RTI Act, 2005 from the following applicants on different dates :

1. Smt. Neeru
2. Dr. Namita
3. Shri Ashwini Kumar Srivastava
4. Shri Gangadhar S. Patil
5. Smt. Ranjeet Kaur

These applications were marked to the Coordination Division of this Ministry according to the subject. As per the set procedure the applications were sent to that Division after getting the approval/signature of the Under Secretary (RTI) on the forwarding letters.

3. However, the Co-ordination Division refused to accept these 5 applications and returned a few to the RTI Section with comments "Not for Coordination-II Section." Some applications have been returned without any comments.

4. It is mentioned that a CPIO to whom a RTI request is forwarded is supposed to furnish available information to the applicant within the stipulated time. In case the sought information relates to any other CPIO/Public authority, the CPIO receiving the application is supposed to further transfer the application to the concerned CPIO/authority. Under no circumstances, the application should be returned to the nodal RTI Section. Time and again, these instructions have been issued to all CPIOs of this Ministry for compliance. (Latest circular enclosed).

5. Accordingly, we may forward the above-referred 5 applications to Co-ordination Division for taking necessary action at their end.
