Information Sought :

Sir/Madam. Based on the news on November 24, 2013 published on The Telegraph(Calcutta) (NISHIT DHOLABHAI). A long-standing turf war between the defence and home ministries has ended with the Centre deciding to transfer the entire administrative and functional control of the Assam Rifles to the army and the ministry of defence. The above quoted was the starting para of the said news. And also published that a meeting of the committee of secretaries, including cabinet secretary, home secretary and defence secretary had resolved the differences by deciding that the Assam Rifles should be handed over to the ministry of defence. No cabinet decision regarding this has not been announced till date. Please intimate the status. Being the trained soldiers of a democratic country, all Assam Rifles serving and retired personnel have the right to be a pure identity either under Ministry of Home Affairs or under Defence Ministry. Please intimate, Is there any rule existing in

USCA

[Handwritten signatures]

Constitution of India that Assam Rifles personnel are not authorised a pure identity.
