The Ministry of Home Affairs is liable for penal action in this regard as per Section 18 of the RTI Act read with Delhi High Court decision in the case of DDA v. CIC. You are advised to comply with the provisions of section 4 within a week failing which the Applicant shall file a complaint under section 18 of the RTI against the concerned officials of Ministry of Home Affairs. In this respect, please also provide the following information : -*
- (i) Please provide the file Numbers in which the proactive disclosure by Ministry of Home Affairs under Section 4 of the RTI Act is dealt with. Please provide the number of Notesheets and number of correspondence pages contained in each file. Please provide certified copies of the Notesheets of the said file from 01-01-2013 till the date of providing the information.
- (ii) Please provide the name of the officers with designations who are responsible for making voluntary disclosure under section 4 of the RTI Act from 01-01-2009 till the date of providing the information and also provide the details of actions taken against them for violation of provisions of section 4 of the RTI Act,
- (B) Please provide list of files from which the information as sought above is provided by you
- (C) Please provide copies of all note sheets and correspondence pages of the RTI file in which this application has been dealt with, till the date of providing the information. In case of correspondence emanating from me, only copy of first page of each document may be provided.

- (2) That the appellant vide para 5 of his said application has also made a declaration that the information sought for is not exempted under Section 8 or 9 of the RTI Act, 2005 and also stated that to the best of the knowledge of the appellant, the information pertains to the Office of the CPIO in question.
- (3) That Shri V.K. Rajan, CPIO, Ministry of Home Affairs, has deliberately and malafidely provided incomplete and incorrect information despite point-wise specific information sought by the Appellant. The appellant being aggrieved by the said order of the CPIO is filing the present appeal.

GROUNDS OF APPEAL

- (1) That the order in question of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and contrary to the provisions and spirit of the RTI Act, 2005 hence liable to be set aside.
- (2) That the information sought by the appellant is not exempted under Section 8 or 9 or any other provisions of the RTI Act, 2005, therefore, there was no valid cause or reason or ground for not providing the information.
- (3) That Shri V.K. Rajan, CPIO, Ministry of Home Affairs, has deliberately and malafidely provided incomplete and incorrect information despite point-wise specific information sought by the Appellant. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (4) That the CPIO has not provided the name and designation of the Officials who are responsible for making voluntary disclosure u/s 4 of the RTI Act. This information was sought in point A(ii) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (5) That the CPIO has not provided any information in relation to point (B) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.

- (6) That the CPIO has provided incorrect and misleading information in relation to point ( C) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.
- (7) That the Ministry of Home Affairs is not complying with the provisions of section 4 of the RTI Act nor they have complied with the DOPT OM dated 15-4-2013 in order to cover up their lapses. The CPIO is providing incomplete, incorrect and misleading information. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame and he is also liable for penalty under section 20(1) of the RTI Act and recommendation for disciplinary action under section 20(2) of the RTI Act, for delaying and obstructing the information in question without any reasonable cause.
- (8) That the CPIO has erred in not providing the information to the appellant though as per the provisions of the RTI Act, the appellant is entitled to information as sought by him. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is liable to be set aside with direction to provide the information to the appellant within time bound frame.
- (9) That the information sought is neither voluminous nor relate to older and larger period, thus could have easily been provided by the learned CPIO.
- (10) That as per proviso to Section 8(1) of the RTI Act, 2005, the information which can not be denied to the Parliament or the State Legislatures shall not be denied to any person. The information sought by the appellant in the subject application is the one which cannot be denied to the Parliament or the State Legislatures and hence it cannot be denied or refused to the appellant.
- (11) That a personal hearing may be granted to the appellant before deciding the present appeal.
- (12) This is without prejudice to the right of the appellant to add, alter or modify any of the grounds of this appeal and adduce oral or written evidence at the time of hearing or till the appeal is disposed of.

PRAYER

Under the circumstances, the appellant prays as under:

- (a) That the Original Records may be summoned and perused.

- (b) That the order of the CPIO may be set aside to the extent it has been appealed against and CPIO/Deemed CPIOs may be directed to provide the information in question within time bound frame.
- (c) That imposition of penalty may also be recommended against the CPIO for not providing the complete and correct information.
- (d) That any other relief as the Appellate Authority deem fit and proper may also be ordered in favour of the appellant.
- (e) That a personal hearing may be granted to the appellant before deciding the appeal.

RTI MATTER/TIME BOUND

नई दिल्ली, दिनांक 08 जुलाई, 2014

ORDER

Sub: First Appeal filed by Shri R.K. Jain under the RTI Act, 2005 - regarding.

Shri R.K. Jain vide his application dated 11/04/2014 had sought information from the Ministry of Home Affairs under the RTI Act, 2005. CPJO vide his letter No. A-42012/09/2014-Ad.II dated 16.05.2014 has already replied to the applicant.

2. Shri R.K. Jain vide his first appeal dated 23/05/2014 (received in this Ministry through Department of Post on 03/06/2014) has stated that the information provided by the CPJO, MHA is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPJO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.

3. The information sought by the appellant, reply of the CPJO and the decision of the Appellate Authority is as under:

Para No.	Information request for by the applicant	Information provided by the CPJO, MHA	Details of appeal	Decision of Appellate Authority
A.	The proactive disclosure of information by Ministry of Home Affairs on its website is neither complete nor up to date as per the requirement of the Section 4 of the RTI Act, 2005 read with guidelines issue under DnPT OM No. 1/6/2011-IR dated 15/04/2013 and 10/12/2013. Even the Hindi version is not operational and most of the menus & submenus/hyperlinks	The matter has been informed to Director(OL) and US(Coord.II) to rectify the Hindi website. Copy of OM of even No. dated 09/05/2014 is enclosed.	Shri V.K. Rajan, CPJO, Ministry of Home Affairs, has deliberately and mala fide provided incomplete and incorrect information despite pointwise specific information sought by the appellant. Therefore, the order of the CPJO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPJO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame. are without any data though displayed on the home page. The Ministry of Home Affairs is liable for penal action in this regard as per Section 18 of the RTI Act read with Oelhi High Court decision in case of DOA V/s CIC. You are advised to comply under section 18 of the RTI against the concerned officials of Ministry of Home Affairs. In this respect, please also provide the following information:

Please provide the file Numbers in which the proactive disclosure by Ministry of Home Affairs under Section 4 of the RTI Act is dealt with. Please provide certified copies of the Note sheets of the said file from 01/01/2013 till the date of providing the information.

Please provide the name of the officers with designations who are responsible for making voluntary disclosure under section 4 of the RTI Act from 01/01/2009 till the date of providing the information and also provide the details of actions taken against them for violation of provisions of section 4 of the RTI Act.

The guidelines issued by DOPT was circulated among the CPIOs of this Ministry vide this Section's O.M. A-43020/38/2012-RTI(Part) dated 20th February, 2014 for taking suo motu disclosure under Section 4 of RTI Act, 2005 and to ensure compliance based on these guidelines. Copies of the relevant noting and the O.M. dated 20/02/2014 are enclosed herewith for information. As per letter dated 20.2.2014 "all the CPIOs are required to undertake suo motu disclosure under Section 4 of the RTI Act, 2005 and to ensure compliance based on these guidelines."

The CPIO has not provided the name and designation of the officials who are responsible for making voluntary disclosure u/s 4 of the RTI Act. This information was sought in point A(ii) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.

CPIO has also provided circulars issued by the Nodal RTI Cell, MHA to all the CPIO in compliance with DoPT's OM dated 15/04/2013. Appellant may obtain further information from each CPIO directly.

All the CPIOs are responsible for making voluntary disclosure for the subjects handled by them. Nodal CPIO is further directed to provide the names of all the CPIOs and Appellate Authorities under MHA(P) to the appellant.

	Further, instructions have been issued by RTI Cell vide O.M.No.43020/16/2014/RTI dated 06/05/2014 to all CPIOs to follow DOPt guidelines dated 15/4/2014(Copy enclosed). Name of CPIOs are available in MHA website www.mha.nic.in.
B Please provide list of files from which the information as sought above is provided by you.	Your present application is also being forwarded to all CPIOs of this Ministry with the request to provide the action taken by them on proactive disclosure of information as per DOPt guidelines to you directly.	CPIO has not provided any information in relation to point (B) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.	Since each CPIO is responsible for making voluntary disclosure for subjects handled by him, therefore files can only be provided by concerned. Nodal CPIO is directed forward a copy of this appeal to CPIOs for providing relevant information directly to the appellant regarding list of files from voluntary disclosures were made
C Please provide copies of all note sheets and correspondence pages of the RTI file in which this application has been dealt with, till the date of providing the information. In case of correspondence emanating from me, only copy of first page of each document may be provided.		CPIO has provided incorrect and misleading information in relation to point (C) of the RTI application. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame.	Since RTI application was forwarded all the CPIOs, therefore they can supply note sheets and correspondence pages of the RTI file in which this application of the appellant 11/04/2014 was dealt by. However, Nodal CPIO is directed forward a copy of this appeal to CPIOs for providing copies of all note sheets and correspondence pages of the RTI file in which this application has been dealt with, till the date of providing information, if already sent. So far as providing of copies of note sheets and correspondence

of the RTI file in which this application has been dealt with, till the date of providing information in respect of nodal RTI cell are concerned, nodal CPIO is directed to provide the same to the appellant, if already not sent.
Nodal RTI cell, MHA has issued many internal orders to all the CPIOs for compliance of DoPT's OM dated 15/04/2013. The relevant orders dated 20/02/2014, 23/04/2014, 06/05/2014 and 21/05/2014 are enclosed. Further, MHA has many CPIOs and relevant information is only available with them.	Ministry of Home Affairs is not complying with the provisions of section 4 of the RTI Act nor they have complied with the DoPT OM dated 15/04/2013 in order to avert up their lapses. The CPIO is providing incomplete, incorrect and misleading information. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is incorrect and illegal and liable to be set aside and the CPIO be directed to provide the information in time bound frame and he is also liable for penalty under section 20(1) of the RTI Act and recommendation for disciplinary action under section 20(2) of the RTI Act, for delaying and obstructing the information in question without any reasonable cause.
Nodal RTI Cell is not a repository of information. Nodal RTI Cell has replied to the appellant so far as information relating to it is concerned. Since, the appellant sought information related to all the CPIOs under MHA(P), nodal RTI cell had forwarded the RTI application to all the CPIOs. If any information is not received from any of the CPIO, then appellant may contact.	CPIO has erred in not providing the information to the appellant though as per the provisions of the RTI Act, the appellant is entitled to information as sought by him. Therefore, the order of the CPIO is liable to be set aside with direction to provide the information to the appellant within time bound frame.
