Information Sought :	I am working at Income-tax Department and posted at Guwahati. After 67 years of Independence the International Border across North-Eastern Region is not fully barbed fencing. Every now and then there is a birth of a militant group which is backed by neighboring country to create law and order problem. They have not only create problem in the law and order situation of the entire Region but also create disturbance to develop this region. The Central Government have not taken any positive step to develop in this region so far. The entire North-Eastern Region is a backward area after 67 years of Independence. I want to know from your Ministry what kind of measure your Department have taken so far
