No. A 43020/01/2014-RTI

Subject: Applications filed under the RTI Act, 2005 - forwarding thereof.

The RTI Section had received applications under the RTI Act, 2005 from the following applicants on different dates :

1. Smt. Neeru
2. Dr. Namita
3. Shri Ashwini Kumar Srivastava
4. Shri Gangadhar S. Patil
5. Smt. Ranjeet Kaur

These applications were marked to the Coordination Division of this Ministry according to the subject. As per the set procedure the applications were sent to that Division after getting the approval/signature of the Under Secretary (RTI) on the forwarding letters.

3. However, the Co-ordination Division refused to accept these 5 applications and returned a few to the RTI Section with comments "Not for Coordination-II Section." Some applications have been returned without any comments.

4. It is mentioned that a CPIO to whom a RTI request is forwarded is supposed to furnish available information to the applicant within the stipulated time. In case the sought information relates to any other CPIO/Public authority, the CPIO receiving the application is supposed to further transfer the application to the concerned CPIO/authority. Under no circumstances, the application should be returned to the nodal RTI Section. Time and again, these instructions have been issued to all CPIOs of this Ministry for compliance. (Latest circular enclosed).

5. Accordingly, we may forward the above-referred 5 applications to Co-ordination Division for taking necessary action at their end.
