Subject: Information sought under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

Sir,

Please refer to your application dated 25/07/2014 under the RTI Act, 2005, which was received in this Ministry on 01/08/2014.

2. It is observed that you have not sought information that is held by any Department/Division of the Ministry of Home Affairs. You have mentioned in detail about the activities of your organization and requested this Ministry to give recommendation to your organization and also for providing you various kinds of forms. It is informed that such requests do not come under the definition of information specified under Section 2 (f) of the RTI Act, 2005. Under the provisions of the RTI Act, an applicant can file his/her request with a public authority for obtaining the information that is held by or under the control of that Authority. Queries on hypothetical situations, questions seeking the opinion/views/advice/legal interpretations of the CPIO/public authority on any matter, requests for personal favours/redressal of personal grievance(s) etc. are not permissible under this Act.

3. However, your application is forwarded to the designated CPIO of this Ministry for providing information/material in respect of FCRA, as available with them.

Encl: As above.

Yours faithfully,

(V.K. Rajan)

Deputy Secretary (E) & CPIO.

Sr,
Sub: KCR's Request for Recommendation form -
806 & FCR, Request - Regard

I, T. Rajesh Khanna Chairman of this Society would like to bring few lines for your kind perusal that I have been doing Welfare Activities through this Society for the past 20 years in and around Tenali area of Guntur District Andhra Pradesh in South India.

To mention a few we have been helping Physically, Handicapped people, Orphans, Street people, Old aged and other needy people in building their livelihood by providing necessary amenities & requirements by taking Governmental help also.

At this juncture, we need huge funds and are stretching our hands to various Donors & volunteers. We need the above Tax Exempted forms & permission.

I therefore humbly request your good office to help us and recommend the concerned Authorities to issue forms & permissions in this regard to strengthen our Society and its welfare activities.

Kindly help at the earliest.
Thank you.

Yours faithfully,
