Particulars of information required:

1. In the new visa agreement India and Pakistan, the duration of visitor visa in exceptional cases has been extended from one year to two years. What are these exceptional cases?
2. My Father-in-law is aged 73 and mother-in-law is aged 64. They would like to come to India on this two year visit visa, as three of their daughters are married and settled in India and they too want to settle in India and obtain Indian Citizenship. Are they eligible under these exceptional cases? What is the procedure to apply for the same?
3. Are my above mentioned In-Laws eligible for LTV? What is the procedure to apply for LTV for them?

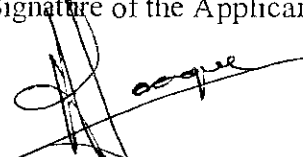

Details of payment of filing fees: Indian Postal Order No. 16 F 450647 for Rs.10/- is enclosed.

Please rush the information to me by speed/registered post/email.

And transfer the application or part thereof to other Public Authority if it does not pertain to your office as per section 6 (3) of R.T.I. Act 2005 within 5 Days.
