Subject:- Application under Right to Information Act, 2005.

Sir,

Please refer to your online RTI application bearing registration No. MHOME/R/2014/61945/1 dated 22.08.2014, on the above subject.

2. In this regard it may be stated that the responsibility for ensuring security of places of religious importance, including temples etc, lies primarily with the State Government concerned.
3. All State Governments have been advised to set up State Level Coordination Committees to review the security arrangements of places of religious importance/ pilgrimages in their jurisdiction and to draw up, implement and monitor security plans to strengthen the security of such places of religious importance.
4. Threats inputs, security advisory etc received from the Central Security Agencies in respect of places of religious importance are promptly shared with the State Governments concerned so as to enable them to take necessary preventive action .
5. The Central Government also considers requests received from the State Government for assistance in the form of deployment of Central Forces, Technical Teams etc, to augment the State Government security arrangements for religious places on important occasions.
6. An appeal if any, against this reply may be made within 30 days to Shri Sailesh, Joint Secretary (PP& VS) & Appellate Authority, Ministry of Home Affairs, NDCC-II Building, 3rd Floor, Jai Singh Road, New Delhi.

Yours faithfully,

(Girish Kumar)
Director (VS) & CPIO
