Subject:- Application under the RTI Act-2005-reg.

Sir,

Please refer to your RTI application dated 09.01.2014 received in this unit on transfer on 13.02.2014.

2. In this regard, it is stated that the provision of security to an individual is primarily the responsibility of the State Government concerned, in whose jurisdiction such individual is ordinarily resident or happens to be. The security is provided on the basis of threat assessment carried out by the security agencies. Hence, details of the protectees in different states may be obtained from the State Government/Union Territory concerned under the provision of the RTI Act-2005.

3. There are four types of categorized security cover which is provided to an individual on the basis of threat assessment carried out by the security agencies i.e X, Y, Z or Z+ category. In addition some protectees are provided security on positional basis taking into account the threat attached to position held by them under the Government. Since the security is provided on the basis of inputs provided by security agencies, further details in this regard are exempted under Sections 24(1), 8(1)(g) and 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act-2005 and cannot be disclosed.

4. Regarding expenditure incurred on providing security, it may be stated that due to the involvement of multiple agencies, including State Government agencies, it is difficult to calculate the actual expenditure incurred on providing security cover and such details are not maintained in this office.
