be loaded with the maximum rates of duties and taxes for the purpose of comparison of prices. If reimbursement of custom duty/excise duty/ GST is intended as extra over the quoted prices, the bidder must specifically say so. In the absence of any such stipulation it will be presumed that the prices quoted are firm and final and no claim on account of such duties will be entertained after the opening of tenders. If a bidder chooses to quote a price inclusive of any duty and does not confirm inclusive of such duty so included is firm and final, he should clearly indicate the rate of such duty and quantum of excise duty included in the price. Failure to do so may result in ignoring of such offers summarily. If a bidder is exempted from payment of custom duty/excise duty/GST up to any value of supplies from them, they should clearly state that no duty will be charged by them up to the limit of exemption which they may have. If any concession is available in regard to rate/quantum of custom duty/excise duty/vat it should be brought out clearly. Stipulations like excise duty/customs duty and GST was presently not applicable but the same will be charged if it becomes leviable later on, will not be accepted. Price Format is available at Appendix- 10 of OTE.
