Subject: Nomination for different posts to the UN Police Division's Standing Police Capacity (SPC) at UN Logistics base (UNLB) at Brindisi, Italy.

Sir/Madam,

The undersigned is directed to refer to this Ministry's letter no 21023/11/2019-PF-VI dated 04.11.2019, by which nominations for the seven posts to UNSPC (at UNLB) were invited. Now, the Police Division, UNHQrs through Permanent Mission of India (PMI to UN) has intimated about the addition of a new post (Team Leader: P-5 level) in addition to earlier seven ones and had sought nominations of eligible candidates for the subject Job openings. The job description and the eligibility criteria/qualifications of the post title of Team Leader (P-5) {No. 2019-SPC-75904/75905-DPO) at Standing Police Capacity (SPC) at UN Logistics Base (UNLB) at Brindisi, Italy are enclosed/attached with this letter for needful reference. Therefore, the following documents (all mandatory) of nominated officers, duly completed, may be forwarded through proper channel to this Ministry before the extended deadline of 03.01.2020.

- a) United Nations Personal History Profile (PHP) form (P.11) duly completed and signed by the nominated candidate.
- b) United Nations Employment and Academic Certification [attachment to personal history profile (P-11)] Form duly completed and signed by the nominated candidate as well as the relevant local / nominated authority. The EAC submitted without the signature of Designated Authority of concerned Force results in rejection of nomination. Hence, the forwarding authority should ensure that the EAC is duly signed by the applicant and Designated Authority of Force. All requisite details i.e. position for which applying, job opening number, date of commission, degrees and academic distinctions and all other requisite details should be filled properly.
- c) Personal details as per Annexure-I.
- d) Human Rights certificate must be included (proforma enclosed).

2. No format other than the specimen enclosed (duly typed) will be entertained/accepted. Formats other than the prescribed one invites lot of observations from UN HQ (UNDPKO) while finalizing the nominations. Hand written PHP will not be entertained/accepted. It may be ensured that the photographs of the officer applying for the post should be placed on the front side of P-11 form and signature in the last page at relevant place.

3. The nominations without Vigilance clearance and Cadre Clearance (for all Officers) from the respective Ministries/Departments/State (or) UT Govts/Organizations' shall be summarily rejected.

4. Applications received through proper channel with approval of Head of Organization alone shall be entertained. Applications received after the deadline specified will not be accepted.

5. Concerned authorities may ensure and advice their officers not to make any direct queries with this Ministry (or) UNHQ regarding selection. This Ministry will not entertain personal queries from individual applicants.

6. Furthermore, the last date for receiving nominations of eligible and willing officers for P-3 level (DySP/SP rank), P-4 level (SP/DIG rank) and P-5 level (DIG/IG rank) has been extended to 03.01.2020.

7. Personal History Profile (P-11) , EAC, and HR certificate along with forwarding letter of each nominated candidate are required to be submitted in separate files (PDF format only) through E-mail at police2-un@mha.gov.in and us-polfin6@mha.gov.in before the deadline.

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism and Respect for Diversity

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of the Chief of the Standing Police Capacity (SPC), the Team Leader acts as one of three principal managers in the office. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism that provides support for start-up police components in new UN peace operations, as well as assists existing operations on a continual basis. The Team Leader manages and contributes to a wide portfolio of law enforcement operational issues. S/he supervises SPC personnel, including other advisers and specialists, on matters concerning police reform, community policing, transnational organized crime, public order, police planning, crime investigation and training. Specific duties include: It is expected that the incumbent works and leads SPC police teams as well as police component in a field mission from a period varying from one week up to three months and beyond. The Team Leader will also be from time to time involved in technical and strategic assessment missions in new and current peace operations.

When at the SPC Headquarters, the incumbent, in co-operation with other Team Leaders and the Special Assistant to the Chief of the SPC, sets and monitors detailed work plans for his/her team in order to prepare SPC personnel for field assignments. S/he interacts closely with relevant Heads of Section in the Police Division, DPKO in conceptualizing and planning field assignments for SPC and identifying specific needs and challenges of police components in UN peace operations. When deployed to the field, the incumbent manages a team to ensure the implementation of SPC's specific terms of reference for its assignments, both during the start-up phase of police components in new UN peace operations and while assisting police components in existing operations. Under the direction of the Chief/SPC, the incumbent works to infuse the relevant Security Council resolutions, policies and directives of DPKO as well as the applicable Terms of Reference in all aspects of SPC's work and identifies and ensures the implementation of best police practices into the day-to-day activities of his/her team. From the perspective of police operational issues, the incumbent provides advice, assistance and expertise on building national law enforcement institutions and capacity, including, among others, police patrols, investigations, searches and seizures, community policing, crowd control management, and emergency services. It is also expected from the incumbent to manage a team while at the HQ up to a large team of staff including non-SPC staff members when deployed in the field.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Competency and mastery of policing activities, including theories and techniques in law enforcement, community safety and capacity-building; conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observes deadlines and focuses on achieving results; persistent when faced with difficult problems and challenges; excellent conceptual, analytical and evaluative skills and able to conduct research and analysis; understanding of the functioning and needs of international policing operations in conflict and post-conflict environments, including familiarity of the concepts of conflict prevention, conflict resolution and peace-building; knowledge of capacity-building from the perspective of law enforcement, development and other rule of law matters. Is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results. Is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns. Shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges. Remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings. Leadership: Serves as a role model that other people want to follow: empowers others to translate vision into results; is proactive in developing strategies to accomplish objectives; establishes and maintains relationships with a broad range of organisations and people to understand needs and gain support; anticipates and resolves conflicts by pursuing mutually agreeable solutions; drives for change and improvements; does not accept the status quo; shows the courage to take unpopular stands. Provides leadership and takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work; demonstrates knowledge of strategies and commitment to the goal of gender balance in staffing. Managing Performance: Delegates the appropriate responsibility, accountability and decision-making authority; makes sure that roles, responsibilities and reporting lines are clear to each staff member; accurately judges the amount of time and resources needed to accomplish a task and matches task to skills; monitors progress against milestones and deadlines; regularly discusses performance and provides feedback and coaching to staff; encourages risk-taking and supports staff when they makes mistakes; actively supports the development and career aspirations of staff; appraises performance fairly.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in the applied sciences, social sciences or other relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications and extensive senior experience in law enforcement and community safety issues may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required.

Work Experience: A minimum of 10 years of experience in an active national law enforcement. Experience in managing multi-disciplinary teams is required.
